Businesses Partner with Local Nonprofits

The Power of Giving program to showcase Waukesha County nonprofits, share how to get involved with causes that impact southeast Wisconsin

Waukesha, Wis. (April 13, 2017) – The Waukesha County Business Alliance is holding The Power of Giving on Thursday, April 20, 2017 from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. at the Sheraton Milwaukee Brookfield Hotel.

This annual event showcases 30 nonprofit organizations serving a variety of communities and causes throughout Waukesha County. The event is open to the public and offers attendees the opportunity to network with nonprofit and business professionals and learn how they can address issues that are impacting Waukesha County. The Alliance aims to promote a stronger collaboration between nonprofits and the community at large.

Whether supporting innovative teacher projects or assisting with therapeutic horseback riding, attendees can explore a variety of nonprofit tables and hear about local opportunities to make a difference in the community using their skills and talents. Speak with board members at the various organizations to learn why their businesses got involved, what benefits they've seen as a result and how to get involved. Below are the participating nonprofits:
