

Tim Casey

Director, Economic Development

Waukesha County Center for Growth

Tim Casey is the Director of Economic Development for the Waukesha County Center for Growth, a non-profit organization dedicated to creating a vibrant economy in Waukesha County where businesses and citizens thrive.

Tim has over 30 years of experience in economic development and real estate development in both the public and private sector. He most recently served as the Economic Development Administrator for the City of Brookfield for six years. He assisted in the creation of three new TIF (Tax Incremental Financing) districts, redevelopment along the Bluemound Road corridor and the expansion of Milwaukee Tool's corporate headquarters. Tim previously led economic development efforts in the Wisconsin cities of Eau Claire and Oshkosh, and served as Director of Economic Development for Milwaukee County.

Tim received his Bachelor of Science from Michigan State University and a Master's degree in Urban Planning from the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee.